Frieze New York 2019

This year’s fair showcases an extraordinary cross-section of work, from today's most exciting emerging artists to seminal figures of modern masters.

New Curated Sections: Diálogos & JAM

In celebration of El Museo del Barrio’s 50th anniversary, Patrick Charpenel and Susanna V. Temkin (El Museo del Barrio) present Diálogos, a new gallery-led sections celebrating contemporary Latinx and Latin American art. JAM (Just Above Midtown) presents "Electric," a platform to support galleries 15 years or younger, and "Direct Current" (DC), "Alternating Current" (AC) new media from radically different generations who explore virtual reality and the significance of self-taught artists, and two exhibitions focused on uncharted areas of human consciousness. Presented in collaboration with the Guernica (The Drawing Center), curated by Daniel Birnbaum (Hauser & Wirth), presents a selection of VR and AR works by artists of different practices and new media from radically different approaches.

New Curated Exhibitions

- "The Doors of Perception"
  - Advised by Andrew Bonacina (The Hepworth) and Laura McLean-Ferris (Swiss Institute), features solo presentations of visionary self-taught artists from around the world in the Reading Room. Each presentation will alternate every hour in the stand. The Doors of Perception is realized in collaboration with the Outsider Art Fair. Presented in collaboration with the Saatchi Gallery, curators of the recipient of this year's Frieze Art Award is Lauren Halsey, the recipient of this year's Frieze Sculpture at Rockefeller Center award is Lauren Halsey. Supported by Luma Foundation, Frieze Sculpture at Rockefeller Center is free to the public and is open through June 28, 2019.
