Welcome to Frieze New York

This year's fair showcases ambitious presentations featuring today's most significant international artists, ranging from emerging contemporary talents to iconic and rediscovered 20th-century masters, a dynamic series of talks with cultural influencers, the Frieze Projects program of artist commissions and the city's most talked about restaurants.

Discover the full program at frieze.com and follow @friezeartfair.

Frame, Focus and Spotlight

Alongside the main gallery section, explore curated feature sections: Frame, advised by Jacob Proctor (Neubauer Collegium for Culture and Society) and Fabian Schöneich (Portikus) features solo presentations of emerging artists; Focus is a platform supporting younger galleries; and the expanded Spotlight section, curated by Toby Kamps (The Menil Collection), presents rarely seen works by 20th-century artists.

Opening Hours

Friday, May 5	11am–6pm
Saturday, May 6	11am–7pm
Sunday, May 7	11am–6pm

Transportation

Frequent ferry services to Manhattan run from the ferry dock near the North exit to E 35th Street (daily) and E 90th Street (weekdays only).

Buses depart to the Guggenheim Museum on 5th Avenue every 10 minutes from outside the North and South exits.

For tickets, visit the ticket desks or book online at frieze.com.

Browse and buy from a selection of the world's best arts and lifestyle publications, and attend an exciting program of events.

Frieze Education

Supported by Deutsche Bank, Frieze Education invites local high school students to learn about current artistic practices through Frieze Teen workshops and to explore the fair through guided tours. Pick up a complimentary Young People's Guide at the information desks.

Publications

Your companion guide to the fair, Frieze Week magazine includes full gallery listings and highlights of cultural events taking place in the city.

frieze magazine is the leading magazine for contemporary art and culture.

Browse 25 years of frieze's archive in our new book, frieze A to Z of Contemporary Art.

To buy and save up to 40% on subscriptions, visit the Frieze stand M10 in the Reading Room.

Frieze Projects

This year's new artist commissions, curated by Cecilia Alemani (High Line Art / Italian Pavilion 2017 Venice Biennale), explore the ways in which the fair is experienced, questioning the act of watching and being watched.

Dora Budor Allergic to the 20th Century (2015)

Dora Budor
MANICOMIO!

P1 Various locations
throughout the fair

Dora Budor supplements the art fair's usual routine by using cinematic doubling to question perception and reality.

Jon Rafman Dream Journal (2017)

Jon Rafman
Dream Journal

P3 Between C1 and D1

Jon Rafman has transformed a gallery stand into a secret movie theater, where visitors can watch, and be watched while watching, a video series fusing amateur 3D animation and niche genres of computer-generated erotica.

Elaine Cameron-Weir task-dependent conditional displays of camouflage dominated by high-copy repetitive sequences, told to (2016)

Elaine Cameron-Weir
two horizon

P2 Outside the North entrance

Elaine Cameron-Weir has built a rudimentary structure based on a backyard air-raid shelter, the inside lit by two neon sculptures – glimpses of which are only possible through a discrete door.

Fabio Mauri Luna (1968)

Tribute to Teatro Delle Mostre
(1968/2017)

P4 Between C26 and C27

This year's tribute is dedicated to Galleria La Tartaruga in Rome. Two original projects from the 1968 exhibition, Giosetta Fioroni's La Spia Ottica and Fabio Mauri's Luna, are restaged, alternated with new commissions by Ryan McNamara and Adam Pendleton.
